DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 03/18/2005 has been entered.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 19-25 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-5 of U.S. Patent No. 5,970,975. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference between application claim 19 and patent claim 1 lies in the fact that patent claim 1 includes more elements and is thus more specific (e.g. patent claim 1 recites the following additional elements: reset means for permitting a patient to substantially instantaneously reset said pressure controller to provide said flow of gas at a predetermined reduced pressure after which said pressure controller resumes provision of said flow of gas in a manner substantially similar to that provided prior to said reset; and means for generating a second signal responsive to failing to detect a condition associated with a presence of a patient). Thus the invention of patent claim 1 is in effect a "species" of the "generic" invention of application claim 19. It has been held that the generic invention is "anticipated" by the "species". See In re Goodman, 29USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Since application claim 19 is anticipated by patent claim 1, it is not patentably distinct from patent claim 1.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The balance of the art is cited to show relevant systems for delivering pressurized gas to an airway of a patient.
